

JACKSON COUNTY 2025 FAIR FASHION SHOW

Friday, July 31, at noon - Pavilion Entry Deadline, July 20, 2026 There will be no Pre-Judging

The Fashion Show is a delight for the viewer and a rewarding experience for creative individuals who have mastered the art of sewing and acquired a taste for fashion. Non-professional model and seamstresses must reside in Jackson County.

Entry blanks are available at the Jackson County Extension Office or by calling Lois Bryden at 812-498-2290 or Karen VonDielingen at 812-358-5859. Official entry blanks must be used and the deadline must be enforced.

Entries should be returned to the Extension Office or mailed to 1154 E. U.S. Hwy. 50, Brownstown, IN 47220. Deadline is July 20, 2026.

Garment will be judged on suitable pattern, fabric, trim, color becoming to model, and construction as it affects the overall appearance. Total look, grooming, personality and charm will also be considered.

Garments must be made after September 2025

Exhibits may also be entered in the Family Arts Building or be a 4-H project. Garments released from the buildings must be promptly returned after the show.

Award for all categories: first $5; second $4; third $3, and participation ribbons for all. An overall sweepstakes ribbon will be presented to one of the blue ribbon winners.

A sewing promotion award will be presented for one who entered both the Family Arts Building and the fashion show by a random drawing.

B-Loved Boutique will present a runway show of formal attire.
